

Women are the key to the survival of this profession.

Invest in our Foundation's mission to advance and support women across funeral service and deathcare. This is more than a sponsorship. It's a legacy.

Why Partner

Your investment creates real impact.

Funeral Women Lead Foundation connects you with a passionate, growing community of funeral professionals.

Your partnership directly funds leadership development, wellness programs, and cultural change across an industry ready for transformation. You gain meaningful visibility with an engaged and growing audience of professionals, while together we build stronger leaders, more inclusive workplaces, and a more sustainable future for funeral service.
